PROFILE

Played key roles in trade policy and diplomacy for THIRTY YEARS.

He believes unequivocally in the Multilateral Trading System (MTS) and its rule-based foundation.

From his work as a negotiator for Egypt (since 1985) and as a senior WTO official (since 1990), he has authoritative knowledge and profound experience in trade policy and negotiations and a rich history of providing guidance to inter-governmental trade negotiations in the GATT and the WTO.

During the Uruguay Round, he was the lead Secretariat official on the negotiation and drafting of the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) and part of the Legal Drafting Group for the overall WTO Agreement.

A profound understanding and grasp of the challenges faced by Members going forward with WTO reform, drawing on previous experience with the transformative reform process of the Uruguay Round.

Extensive legal expertise based on long career in public international law (trade law) and international trade negotiations.

Extensive experience with the implementation of the WTO Agreement and its related instruments:

- Providing advice to dispute panels relating to Trade in Services.
- Providing advice to member governments of the WTO, developed as well as developing countries regarding their treaty obligations.
- Delivering technical assistance to developing countries at governmental, non-government and academic levels.
- Outreach to the private sector and civil society, in countries members of the WTO, on issues relating to the interface between domestic services regulation and treaty obligations under the GATS.
- Frequently solicited for advice and guidance to governments and Chairpersons on substantive and procedural solutions to problems faced, in the work of WTO bodies.

Long track record of outreach at senior levels in governments and private sector, including guidance on key negotiating issues.

High degree of credibility and good standing with both developing and developed country Members.

Solid internal WTO management and leadership experience.

Egyptian/Swiss national - Arabic mother-tongue, excellent English and fluent French.
